Who we are

The Islamic Community Center of Anchorage, Alaska (ICCAA) is a non profit organization with 501(c)(3) status.

We have been featured on Al -Jazeera television, Al Huda TV and interviewed by Newsweek. We also partnered with Alaska Pacific University in a year long symposium "Engaging Muslims".

ICCAA currently rents a unit in a strip mall where we provide a variety of Islamic services to the community.

These services include:

- Daily prayer/Jumm'a.
- Iftar/Taraweh prayers
- Weekend Islamic school teaching Quran, and Hadith.

Our rented space can accommodate only 150-200 individuals. With growing Muslim population, we must rent a larger facility to accommodate Eid prayers, Islamic lectures, da'wah events, and other large community events.

Our Efforts

- Al-Hamdulillah, we have already purchased the land for our first future Masjid and Community Center.
- Engineering and city permits have been completed and paid in full.
- Underground utilities have been completed and paid in full.
- Building foundation has been completed and paid in full.
- Start of phase 1 and phase 2 depends on securing necessary funds.

We are endorsed by:

- CAIR , ISNA,
- FIQH COUNCIL OF NORTH AMERICA

Our Goals

- Establish the first Masjid and School within an Islamic Community Center that will be a beacon highlighting the values of Islam.
- Having a Monday through Friday school teaching Islamic values and regular curriculum.
- Islamic daycare center and playground.
- Conference rooms to host:
 - Islamic lectures, Halaqas for youth, women, and men.
 - Interfaith events.
 - Community outreach programs.
 - Social events and functions.
- Islamic library.
- Kitchen to facilitate Ramadan Iftars, community wide potlucks, and other events.
